About Jay Maas

Having trained both privately and later at Berklee College of Music, Jay has been entrenched in music since the age of 12. Jay began his journey into professional audio production and engineering in 2003 when he opened his Boston-area studio, Getaway Recording.

In 2008 Jay founded the band Defeater (Epitaph Records), writing and producing 4 LPs and 1 EP for the band before parting ways in 2015. Now free from the time constraints of touring, Jay's sights are set on making artistically compelling and sonically impactful records full time.

In addition to his work with Defeater, Jay's extensive production discography contains essential recordings from bands such as Bane, State Champs, Citizen, Counterparts, Verse, Title Fight, Carpathian, Ceremony, Somos and many, many more.
